Red-tailed Black-Cockatoo
ENDANGERED

RECORD SHEET

Please return this sheet when full or within three months of first entry. Accurate historical records are also welcome.

PLEASE RETURN TO: P.O. BOX 243, CASTERTON, VIC 3311

NAME .....

ADDRESS .....

..... POST CODE .....

PHONE ..... No of Observers .....

Would you like to receive a copy of Red Tail News Y / N

Please be as specific as possible when describing the location. (Use a CFA map reference, distance and direction from nearest town, grid reference etc.)

Date	Time	Location	Total Seen	Male	Female	Young	Direction of Travel	Notes: Feeding, Drinking, Roosting etc..

The Red-tailed Black-Cockatoo Recovery Team is a joint project involving Birds Australia, Environment Australia, Department of Natural Resources and Environment, and Department of Environment & Heritage.

WYNNS
COONAWARRA ESTATE